

Recognition Events	The College District may observe recognition days, weeks, and months by appropriate programs, celebrations, activities, and events (“events”). The College District may select events based on their historical and cultural significance and contribution to a rich student life.
	Events shall be open to all employees and students and may, at the College’s discretion, be open to the community, but employees and students shall not be required to participate in any recognition day, week, month, or related programs, celebrations, activities, or events.
Guidelines	The College President or designee shall establish guidelines for selecting events recognized by the College District. These guidelines shall advance the College’s commitment to a rich student life experience and shall consider: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li data-bbox="600 829 909 871">1. Official Designation<li data-bbox="600 882 1380 924">2. Connection to the College District’s Educational Mission<li data-bbox="600 934 909 976">3. Appeal to Students<li data-bbox="600 987 950 1029">4. Logistics and Expense<li data-bbox="600 1039 1388 1123">5. Inclusivity of Various Groups, Communities, and Populations
	Outside of the criteria specified above, the selection and approval of events shall not be based on the topic/content of the event.
Planning and Execution	The College President or designee shall be responsible for the planning and execution of recognition day, week, or month events. The responsible person may delegate responsibility for an event to a committee that includes students and college employees. Service on event committees shall be voluntary and open to all students and employees.
Consistency	Events and activities may vary based on timing and resources, but the College strives to provide recognition and engagement opportunities for all students, employees, and the local community throughout the year. The College is committed to maintaining consistency in its efforts to recognize historical and cultural events.
Events are Not Endorsements	Activities and events are not endorsements of any particular cause or policy.