Penalties-Sanctions
for Student Misconduct

A student shall be subject to discipline for violations of College District policies and procedures, including the rules outlining expectations for student conduct [see FLB]. If a student commits an infraction or engages in misconduct, the College District may impose one or more of the following penalties/sanctions:

1. Reprimand — A verbal or written warning to the student following a rule violation. Repetition of such misconduct may result in more severe disciplinary action.
2. Restitution — Reimbursement for damage to or misappropriation of property. Reimbursement may take the form of appropriate service to repair or otherwise compensate for damage.
3. Scholastic penalties — Range from a zero on an assignment to suspension. Academic dishonesty and corresponding penalties are defined and outlined in the online College District catalog.
4. Conditional Probation — Placing a student on notice that continued infraction of regulations may result in suspension or expulsion from the College District. Conditional probation may include restrictions on a student's rights and privileges or specified community service. The probation may be for a specified length of time or for an indefinite period according to the relative severity of the infraction or misconduct. Failure to fulfill the terms of the probation may lead to suspension or expulsion.
5. Suspension — Forced withdrawal from the College District for either a definite period of time or until stated conditions have been met. Suspensions may extend from the remainder of the term through one year, at which time, upon request of the student, his or her status will be reevaluated by the vice president of student affairs or designee in conjunction with other College District administrators, as appropriate.
6. Expulsion — Permanent forced withdrawal from the College District. A student receiving disciplinary expulsion shall have the action noted in the student's permanent record.
7. No Trespass Notice — Issued in cooperation with campus security and local law enforcement. If a no trespass notice is violated, a student may receive a criminal trespass order.
